Dear Daniel,

PARALLEL Presentation Checklist:

___ NOW until July 8: Upload any up-to-date conference material submissions that you would like to share (always updateable!). These materials are needed early, internally for session chairs to conduct a meaningful session and other conference organizers.

BY JULY 8, REQUIRED. Submit online your:

- ___ File for online schedule, in PDF format (a full paper, extended abstract, or slides for practitioner applications).
- ___ Make sure your abstract, title, and author information are correct and complete (always updateable!).
- ___ The Tentative Schedule may change, please check periodically.

https://webportal.systemdynamics.org/documents/Tentative_Schedule.html

Also by JULY 8 (optional but recommended):

- ___ Presentation slides
- ___ Supporting materials (including models and documentation as appropriate)
- ___ Presentation YouTube video ID (will allow conference attendees to see your presentation any time; required if you are unable to attend the live session)
- ___ Sign up for a Dialog Session on the online conference website

Please visit https://systemdynamics.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/06/Parallel_Web_Info.pdf for

- Instructions for uploading files and YouTube video
- Attendance and Timing Issues
- Presentation Tips
- Information about videos and Conference materials
- Some Important Dates

Using the zoom platform, there will be a practice session a week or so before the conference. We will keep you posted.

This message is being sent for your paper: Paper (ID #1385): "A system dynamics analysis about the relationship between ventilation and the spread of COVID-19 in indoor spaces"
If you have more than one paper you will receive multiple messages.

We look forward to seeing you in July!

Sincerely,
The Conference Organizing Team
